BOVRIL ISN'T DEAR,

in fact, value for value, it is one of the cheapest drinks and one of the most economical foods that can be obtained. A cup of hot Boyril costs less than a drink of whisky, and while giving a more genuine and lasting warmth than the latter, confains, in addition, the nutritive principles of beef worth many times its cost. 🔑 🔒

Old fashioned beef teas and meat extracts, whether known as such, or disguised under more pretent ous modern names contain none a doctor to day disputes it. Used as a nourish- ties of the beer. It is this fact, together with ment Meat Extract is probably the most its absolute purity, that commends Boyril to the cheapest.

BOVRIL AT THE FRONT.

Bovril has played such a conspicuous part in South Africa that it forms no inconsiderable feature of the story. The "Lancet" has had frequent references to Bovril in the reports of the officers of the Royal Army Medical Corps. Nearly every newspaper correspondent has had to refer to Boyril to make his story complete. Rudyard Kipling and Boden-Powell. have written their Boyril stories. Over 500 British hospitals and similar public institutions. use and prescribe Bovril, not beef tea, but

The reason is not far to seek. Boyril is a of the NUTRITIVE properties of beef. Baron nourisher as well as a stimulant. It contains Liebig himself admitted this fact; there is not the albumen and fibrine, the sustaining properexpensive article one can buy. Bovril one of physicians and scientists, and proves in practice what it demonstrates in analysis.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Kwang-si Rebellion.

The aims of the Kwang-si rebels, as set forth in another column, are apparently the overthrow of Manchu rule in the South. In fact they wish to cut off the Southern Provinces from the rest of China and set up their own government at Canton under a Chinese Emperor. Who this Emperor is to be, or whether any selection has been made, we are as yet unable to say. The programme of the rebels distinctly lays down that trade is to be fostered and that foreigners are to be protected and respected, so it is very evident that the present rising is not of an anti-foreign character. How long this benevolent attitude towards foreigners will continue, however, remains to be seen. Among the rabble collected in a rebelliou there must always be a large proportion of bad characters, and it is doubtful if the leaders will find it possible to keep this rowdy element, which would certainly be more or less anti-foreign, in check.

It is interesting to note that the rebels style themselves the "Hungs." Hung Siu-TSEUN was the briginator of the Taiping rebellion, and it must not be forgotten that this great movement, which very nearly accomplished the overthrow of the Manchus was originated and fostered in the very district in which the present rising in proceed ing. We are told that a direct descendant of one of the Taiping leaders is at the head of the movement and that a Taiping veteran is one of its leaders, so it may well be that the present rebellion is simply a revival of the Taiping rising of the early fifties, though at present we have no news of any pretensions as regards Christianity on the part of the leaders.

This rising, although it has reform for one of its objects, apparently has no connection with the reform parties of either KANG YU WEI or SUN YAT SEN, but appears to be a purely patriotic movement undertaken by the Southern Chinese to accomplish their release from the Manchu yoke. At present the disturbed area is too distant for us to be affected to any appreciable extent, but there can be little doubt that the success or failure of the Hungs will be of moment to the

THE LIMEWASHING RETURNS for the fortnight ended 29th March, showed that in the Central district where there are 3,851 houses. 576 had been limewashed and 489 inspected since the last report.

UNJUST WEIGHTS:-At the instance of Inspector Ford, the shop-keepers of No. 131 Connaught Road West, and No. 168, Des Vœux Road West, were each fined $25 for keeping unjust weights.

BIG FIRE AT PENANG :- Spring Grove, Penang, the Residence of Mr. O. Sielcken, of Messrs. Behn Meyer & Co. has been entirely gutted by a fire. The damage is estimated at $30,000. The property was fully insured.

SMALL-POX OF A MALIGNANT TYPE is raging badly in Penang. Two European Master mariners are down with it. 75% of seizures are said to be proving fatal. A great many of the community are taking the precaution to have themselves vaccinated.

TWO SAMPLES OF MILK, submitted for analysis under the Sale of Food and Drugs Ordinance, 1896, for the quarter ended 3151 March were found to be adulterated. Samples of rum, brandy, whisky, gin and beer were also examined, and were found genuine.

EXPENSIVE CIGARS :-- Chan Shing, who by the way is an inveterate smoker quietly appropriated a box of cigars valued $6, the property of Messrs. Lane, Crawford and Co. Before Mr. Kemp this morning the was duly charged by Mr. A. H. Skelton, with the result hat Chan Shing will be debarred from smoking the coveted weed for two months.

"A DISGRACE TO THE COLONY" is what the Quarterly Inspection Committee of the Sanitary Board think of the Gough Street latrine. In their second report, dated 14th March, they say it should be removed or rebuilt on modern sanitary principles. "The stench is overpowering and pervades the neighourhood. People less sensitive than Chinese would not tolerate the nuisance for a day."

TELAUTOGRAPHIC MESSAGES :- Experiments were made recently over the Paris-Lyons telephone wires with with the use of a new apparatus, a "telautograph," which transmits an exact reproduction of a telegram as written by the sender. The trials were very successful, though the handwriting as repro-duced by the machine was somewhat shaky. But this fault should easily be corrected by the inventor. The apparatus will be thoroughly tested in the Ministries, after which it will be put at the service of the public.

REPLY TO INQUIRER:-Mr. F. Brown, the Honorary Secretary of the Hongkong-Football Club, kindly supplies the following information in reply to Inquirer;-The record attendance for a match of any description is 114,887 at the English Cup final of 1901. The attendances since the final was taken to the Palace are: -1895, 42,560; 1896, 48,836; 1897, 65,891; 1898, 62,017; 1899, 73,833; 1900, 68,945; 1901, 114,887.

ANTI-PINGPONG , LEAGUE :- Ping-pong has become such a rage in Paris that society men cannot go anywhere without being lassoed into a game of ping-pong, so they have formed an Anti-Ping-Pong League, says the Faythe. Review, a new ping-pong journal. The members wear a distinctive button, so that the ladies cannot feel offended when members refuse to play, since they have sworn never to partticipate in "this foolsh, unmanly English and was of the opinion that the water was so tainted with impurities as to be unfit for potable purposes and likely to prove injurious to health. The matter will be brought before the Sanitary Board this evening. Mr. Osborne minuted that the analysis was not attached to the report and "no more wells should be closed. till we have a sufficient water supply. Better have slightly impure water than none at all. This well should not be closed, but the owner made to line it properly."

MR. W. G. WINTERBUBN, formerly of Penang and now of Hongkong, has an interesting article in Cassier's Magasine for March on the Chinese junk, and dealing generally with the Chinese shipbuilding industry. Mr. Winterburn writes in optimistic manner of the Chinese workman, "the best Smiths," he says, "fitters moulders and boilermakers from Burmah to Japan are Chinese. In every foreign settlement, Borneo, the Straits, Tonkin, the Philippines, we find Chinese artisans, who have been trained under the European supervision in Hongkong or Shanghai, and who emigrated to those countries where their services are always in demand."

AN INCORRECT RUMOUR:—The rumour that the new British stamps were to be withdrawn turns out to be incorrect. Last month a in contradiction of the rumour. The stamps are not very pleasing, perhaps, but they seem to stick as well as the old ones, and answer their purpose. No doubt the stamp collectors would have been pleased at their withdrawal, as it would have increased the value of those already issued, but it seems that England can worry alone on inartistic postage stamps without any very serious rise in the death rate. According to one of the London papers many journalists and stockbrokers have given instructions that all letters are to be placed on the breakfast table face downwards so that their appetites shall not be disturbed by the sight of the stamps. Such supersensitive souls should not be brought in contact with the ordinary affairs of life.

Glasgow, which was the most densely crowded of the large cities of the United Kingdom, had but or persons to the acre. In conclusion, he pointed out thr it would also be seen from the tables attached to the report, that the Health Districts, 2 and 9, in which districts the outbreaks of bubonic plague almost invariably commenced and were the most severe, showed the greatest number of occupants per floor, namely 9.1 as compared with an average of the City of 7.6.

THE KWANG-SI REBELLION.

INTERVIEW WITH A CHINESE BANKER.

THE REBEL PROPAGANDA.

As the general tendency appears to be to minimize the gravity of the state of affairs in Kwangsi and the surrounding neighbourhood the following interview with a Chinese Banker. nay be of interest to our readers :--

I arrived here from Canton two days ago, and I was surprised to notice amongst my friends a total ignorance of the affairs in Kwang-Si. Some are of opinion that the "rising," as they term it, is nothing more than IMPURE WATER has been found in a well, the doings of a band of robbers, As you are at 85 Wellington Street. The Government probaby aware, Kwangsi has always been the An elyst (Mr. F. Browne) examined a sample shot-bed for rebellions, but as so many have fallen through, people are led into the belief that the present rising will follow in the footsteps of the former ones. As one who has done business in the disturbed area for over seven years as a banker, I think that what I say can be faithfully relied upon. The first inkling we had of the affair, was when I went to a small and flourishing town called Ping Nam, on the banks of one of the tributaries of the West River, whither I had gone from Shek-sing, tny head quarters, to collect some money. This was some time in February. After concluding my business, I hurriedly returned to my home in Shek-shing, but what was my surprise to find that the town was already in the hands of the rebels, under the command of a man named Kwok It appears that one quiet day, about forty men, disguised as opium merchants, came into the town and said that they were travellers passing through. Towards the evening more arrived and by the time that dust set in, the town was completely in their hands. Their first act was to capture all the local Mandarins, seize all the banks, including mine, and throw open all the prisons and liberate the prisoners.

The next day printed pamphlets were issued and posted up in all the public places. These turned out to be their prostatement was made in the House of Commons | paganda. The following is an exact translanew tion of one :- "Sons, of China, we are not robbers. Treat us not as such. We, the proper Chinese, are governed by foreigners, for are not the Manchus the present usurpers of our throne, foreigners? They have not justly ruled us. The groans of the masses are not heard; their grievances are not redressed. Their mandarins are a mass of corrupt officials they have sold parts of China to the Western people; they have declared war upon nations without our knowledge, and now demand of us, we Southerners, increased taxes, to meet the payment of the indemnities. Why should we be the sufferers? We are mothing to them ! Why have we allowed ourselves to be thus trampled upon? True sons of China, and of the South, we pray of you to consider these things and read our propaganda! Our first, is the overthrowing of the present Manchu dynasty, second, founding a new dynasty with a Chinese Emperor on the Throne, third, the helping of the oppressed of attacking boats so persistently as to upset land needy, fourth, introduction of reform, them, upon which one of the crew not in- fifth, the protection of trade, and sixth and frequently falls a victim to his jaws. As regards the question of whence they receive their supplies. the weapons are smuggled into the interior by men disguised as opium merchants who travel inland from Annam. At present there is In his annual report for the year 1901, practically no trade at all everything is be submitted to the Sanitary Board suspended. The rebels are encamped in recruits every day. When I left Shek Shing I heard that the Government were despatching any further news. I have clused all my business, and am now on my way to Shanghai.

Hongkong, 28th January, 1902,

the recent tournaments. I couple the toast with the sporting Capt. Cadogan. (Prolonged cheering).

Capt. Cadogan responded in suitable terms.

Lieut. C. Badham Thornhill, said :- I assure - you it is with much diffidence but with great pleasure that I propose the Polo players in the 22nd Bombay Infantry. I regret the toast,is not in better hands but I know the Bombays very well and can truthfully say they are a · band of true sportsmen. We have here to-night two conspicuous members of the Regiment who played an important part in two of the late international teams. I believe the Regiment may be going away before very long so it is therefore all the more to their credit that they. have supported the game to the extent they have done. I have a shrewd suspicion that if they remain with us they will put in the field one of the strongest Regimental teams seen here for a long time as I know they have a pony or 'wo in training on the quiet over in the new territory. Gentlemen I give you the health of the 22nd Bombay Infantry Polo players. Long may they stay with us and I couple, with the toast the name of the genial Captain Labertouche one of the hardest and surest hitters and a brilliant player. (Applause)

Capt. C. N. L. Labertouche said :- Gentlemen, owing to the absence of a member of the Regiment-due no doubt to some grave cause, -and whose name is on the toast list, I regret it devolves upon me to endeavour to reply for the 22nd Bombay Infantry. With regard to Polo players and, the Regiment to which have the honour to belong I feel that the initiated here to-night must look upon some of Mr. Thornhill's remarks as bordering on exaggeration and irony, while personally I feel that I must accuse him of flattery." But nevertheless he has been very kind to us and as I do not wish to belittle any good impressions he may have formed I beg simply to express my heartiest gratitude to you all for the enthusiastic way in which you have acknow. ledged the toast. (Cheers).

Col. Koe said :- Gentleman, it affords me unqualified pleasure to propose "Success to the Polo Club " and with the toast will you allow me to couple the name of Mr. Whitehead who was one of the Club's original members and who has been one of its staunchest supporters and continues to be one of its mainstays. It is impossible to over-estimate the great and growing importance of outdoor sports and games in the life of the British people. They undoubtedly tend to bind men and communities together by common interests and common sympaties. The development and keen general interest now taken in athletics is a revival of what used to prevail in the old country in the good old days. This movement in which so many men are interested is heartily to be welcomed and it is gratifying to find that the ancient instincts of the British race are firmly seassorting themselves. The tendency of town life is to deteriorate mankind, the individual but he flourishes on the cricket field on the polo ground and on kindred fields of sport and recreation. He not only benefits physically but he maintains his manhood and is enabled to enter into new and bealthier relations with his fellow men and competition with other nationalities. Every sport has its utility but none tends to make a man more k man than the entrancing game of polo, and none battle of life. The exercise which the noble game yields has worked wonders on many men and Mr. Whitchead is a living evidence of what polo exercise can do for the human frame after a lengthened residence intropical climates. In their own interests it is such to be regetted that so few Civilian members follow the example set by our energetic and indefatigable Chairman. In bumpers I ask you to drink Success to the Polo Club and I couple the same with the name of our vigorous and energetic Chairman. The toast was received with acclamation and musical honours

Mr. T. H. Whitehead said - Gentlemen, it is evident from Col. Koes remarks concerning myself that he is not suffering from the innate modesty which is so characteristic of the Irish race. Speaking in the Legislative Council on 25th July, 1808, I said :- Alt is impossible to

Causeway Bny, has been reserved you any longer beyond cordially thanking Mr. for general recreation since 1898 by Ordinance Cruickshank for proposing and the rest of you and is now known as the 'Queen's Recreation for so heartily responding to the todst. (Cheers). Ground. The Polo Club is getting on in years, Captain Labortouche said :- Gentlemen, I having been started in 1887. During that feel it is a great honour as well as a pleasure to | period there have been many changes and no be entrusted with proposing the health of the less than seven different regiments have been Royal Welsh Fusiliers Polo Players. They are stationed here, viz :- The Northamptonshire or true sportsmen and I hope it will be my luck 58th Regiment, alias the 'Steelbacks," the to run across a Regiment who are so good men Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders or 91st to meet, no matter where or how. It is a very foot, the Shropshire Light Infantry or 53rd foot, great loss to the Club that half of the Regiment | the Riffe Brigade, the Prince of Wales Own are in the North but in Peking they have or 14th West Yorkshire Regiment, the 1st started polo and are giving a right good Royal Lancaster Regiment or the 4th King's account of themselves there. Those here have Owngand now Hongkong is fortunate to have had to contend against a series of accidents | the privilege of the presence of the Royal with ponies and but for this I feel sure they Welsh Fusiliers, formerly the 23rd Regiment. would have had a team which would have Amongst the polo playing members of these carried off the Royal Artillery Challenge regiments there were the pick of the very best Shield as well as Mr. Cruickshank's Cups in of rare good fellows, the hardest and surest hitters, splendid horsemen and numerous brilliant players, a good many of whom I am grieved to say have found their last resting place in South Africa. That so few civilians are to be found amongst the playing members is greatly to be deplored, for the effects of the exercise are more bracing and far more lasting than the best tonics medical science can prescribe. With the cordial co-operation of all branches of His Majesty's Services it is to be hoped that the ball will be kept rolling on Causeway Bay and that thereby we will maintain our health and strength and may be enabled to retain our handsome figures. The members are under great obligations to the ladies for honouring Causeway Bay Ground occasionally with their presence, which adds a distinct charm to the picturesque surroundings. Their presence also causes emulation in the heart of the players, it makes the old feel gay and the young to feel strong. They are indeed a great incentive to increased endeavours and improved play. Mr. Jorrocks said that "Unting" is the king of sports, the "himage" of war without its guilt, and twenty five per cent of its danger. We cannot have hunting on this "dot on the ocean" 570] but the next best thing to it is within the reach of many who can well afford it but refrain from taking part in the health giving recreation. Polo occupies a unique position between "sports" properly so called on the one hand > developing the attributes in man-eye, hand, a firm seat, courage, activity, pluck, endurance, quickness of thought, keenness, determination, good temper, judgment, strategy, discipline, unselfishness, and self control. The exercise pardens the muscles, strengthens the nerves, qualifies and fits man for the discharge of life's duties in addition to rendering him capable of performing better work than he otherwise could do. A warm welcome awaits the new faces who come to fill up the gaps in the ranks made by departing favourites but old friends whether players or ponies hold a warm corner in our hearts. The future of polo is largely dependent on new infusions of blood, quite as much so as a fox hound kennel. I have it on reliable authority that in future there are to be three Indian Regiments stationed in Hongkong instead of one, in addition to one British Regiment, besides the large number of and "games" on the other and partakes of the best qualities of both..., It is most useful for backward to join our ranks and share in the many benifits which the invigorating exercise yields. I will repeat the words :---"Bo search the world all over, take the pastimes, one

Royal Artillery Royal Engineers, &c., but

sincerely hope the civil element will not be so

No better game than pole you can find ; For, like life, its twists and turnings teach us all to give and take And strongthen both the muscle and the mind.

So the flying ball we'll follow, ever on from goal to goal, Till minutes into hours swiftly pass; And we now no other pleasure in excitement can

To such a glorious gallop on the grass."

Polo is steadily gaining a firmer-root and stronger hold in public favour thoughout the world. There will be an International tournament in England this summer and another at Delhi next January. India having invited withers in the counting house and at the mill England, America, France, Italy, Hungary and other countries to take part in the latter. From the recent Rombay papers it appears that a selected team of crack players from Manipur, the birth place of polo, will take part in the Delhi tournament.

Other tousts followed including "the Ladies' proposed by the gallant Captain Labertouche in a speech brimful of Irish wit and humour and was responded to by Mr. J. D. Venables in feeling and suitable terms. The proceedings, which included a number of songs, sporting and otherwise, were harmonious to a degree fits him more for the sterner joys of war, or throughout, the best of good fellowship reigned enables him the better to fight his part in the supreme and a very enjoyable evening terminated with the singing of." Auld Lang Syne,"

HONGKONG AND THE CORONATION.

SUGGESTED "KING'S PARK"

FIRST MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE. The Chief Justice, His Lordship W. M. Goodman presided at the first meeting of the Coronation Committee held at noon to-day in the Legislative Council Chamber. There were also present the Hon. J. H. Stewart Lockhart, C.M.G. (Colonial Secretary), Hon. W. Chatham (Director of Public Works), Hon. R. Murray Rumsey (Marbour Master), Hon. A. W. Brewin, Hon. Dr. Ho Kai, Hon. Wei A Yuk, Messrs. F. J. Badeley, A. Skelton, R. Shewan, With regard to other matters, R, C. Wilcox, Fung Wa Chun, Ho Tung, W. H. Wickham, D. E. Brown, Deacon, W. Danby, E. Osborne, W. Poate, E. H. Sharp, A. J.

Raymond, C. W. Dixon and others. The Chairman said-Gentlemen, since the Committee was selected there are one or two others names which have been proposedgentlemen who were not in the Colony at the time that Committee was selected. The first name is that of of Mr. J. R. M. Smith, chief manager of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, who has very kindly consented to act on the Committee, and His Excellency therefore ap- I cordially endorse all the remarks that he has pointed him as an extra member. The other | made, but I am not possessed of artistic sense names are Mr. Gersham, Stuart and Mr. enough to make any suggestions myself. Any W. H. Wickham. Before commencing the suggestions that anyone has to make will be day's business, I might say that His Excel lency stated he desired to say a few words and, therefore, with your permission I will ask him to kindly come in and address you.

PLEASING ADDRESS BY HIS EXCELLENCY. H.E. the Officer Administering the Government, having entered the room said-Mr. Chief Justice and gentlemen. I take it as a great compliment indeed to be invited in here to say a few words to you before the commencement of your labours, and I take this opportunity of thanking you with my whole heart for the ready way in which you have accepted my invitation to add these labours to what you already have to do." know that all of you are very busy men, and I take the ready acceptance of my invitation as a proof-which I did not need before-that you all have the honour of this Colony as much at heart as I have (applause). As for myself, gentlemen, you can easily understand that during my short period of administering the Government I would wish that everything should be done in Hongkong in a way thoroughly befitting the place. I yield to no man in my affection for Hongkong, and I yield to no man either in my estimation of the present political and commercial importance of Hongkong and I think that I have perhaps a higher opinion than many people of the future of Hongkong (applause). Therefore, I would certainly desire that during my term of administration-an honour which I prize more highly than I do anything else-everything should be done in Hongkong in a way-that in fact you should not have to deplore in any way the absence of the real Governor. I therefore beg to assure you that in everything I can do you shall have

THE MOST COMPLETE HELP FROM ME; your wishes shall be in every way my law, and I will give you all possible assistance. my power, both in any military displays that you may desire and in all other matters. have been considering a number of schemes, but on reflection I felt that your experience and your knowledge was so far greater than my own and that it would be far wiser for me to leave myself in your hands, and this I do with the most perfect confidence. (Applause).

H. E. then left the room, and the Chairman called on the Colonial Secretary to move the first resolution.

The Hon. J. H. Stewart Lockhart said .- I have the honour to propose "That in view of the approaching coronation of His Majesty the King, steps should be at once taken to make arrangements for celebrating that auspicious event in this Colony in a sultable manner, and that subscriptions, in aid of the necessary expenses be invited forthwith." Gentlemen, I don't think this is a resolution which needs any words from me to commend itself to you. Hongkong has has experience of many celebrations of a kind similar to that attending the coronation in June, and on every occasion this Colony has come forward with only too great readiness to CELEBRATE THE AUSPICIOUS EVENTS in a manner well worthy the occasion, and I feel certain that on this occasion Hongkong will not allow itself to be second to any other place in the world in the manner in which it celebrates the Coronation of our King. I do not know whether it will be out of place for me to make one or two suggestions, as I myself will not have the good fortune to be in Hongkong when the celebration takes place. It has occurred to me that in addition to having the ordinary festivities usual on such occasions we should also have something this very important event in British history (applause). In having that permanent memorial, I think, gentlemen, we should try to make it of such a kind that it will be of permanent benefit not only to the present inhabitants of this Colony but in times to come. We all know. Hongkong is growing rapidly in population and that the recreation grounds now existing are far too overctowded. In fact, there is nobody who has been a resident of many years standing in this Colony, but fully realises the necessity for more extended tecreation grounds. I, therefore, think that we could not have a better memorial of this auspiciois occasion than to HAVE A KING'S FARE

I am not speaking as a member of the Government, but as one of this committee, and as one of you gentlemen I would urge you very strongly to leave no stone unturned with a view to obtaining a King's Park We have; on the Rowloonside, an excellent site and I am per-COTTAM & CO. In addition to having this park, we ought also to remember that we have our gracious Queen, whose memory we would always like to commemorate, and I think, seeing how devoted she has always been to works having for their object the benefitting of the povertystricken we could not do better than devote part of our subscriptions to form a fund to be called, in honour of her name, the Queen Alexandra Fund. MANCHU RULE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG TELEGRAPH," SIR,-The World-startling incident of the siege of the Legations is now history! The facts which led to this affair appear to have been forgotten, and the authors, the Empress Dowager and her supporters the Manchu Princes and nobles, are now honoured and respected as if the diabolical massacre of Missionaries and Chinese converts by their orders in the summer of 1900 was but a nightmare The Legation ladies have even invited this fiendish Semiramis and her kinswomen to partake of their hospitality! Such behaviour is disgrace to civilization. Is the World awake? Can one forget the attitude of the secret council held by the Empress Dowager in the Imperial Palace in June, 1900, when she and the assembled Manchu Princes and nobles resolved to Massacre every foreigner in the land, although Hsu Ching Cheng and Yuen Chang (Chinese officials) beseeched them on their knees not to think of so foolhardy a feat? These two Chinese officials were subsequently beheaded-murdered in cold blood!

What is it that the Empress Dowager and Manchu Princes and nobles have achieved in their effort to exterminate the Foreigners and to drive Western civilization out of China? Disaster, humiliation and abject defeat. Whom the gods would destroy, they first

The Manchus are doomed. Do the Powers realize that Almighty God is going to punish the Manchus for their crimes of 1900. Will it not be wiser for the Powers to support the Chinese in their coming just and righteous struggle for Freedom, Independence and Reform? We trust they will be sane enough to which will remain as a permanent record of adopt this policy when the thunderbolt of revolution bursts over the long suffering, oppressed and enslaved provinces of the Empire. In the name of Almighty God-let not the "Ward-Gordan" incident with its attendant miseries and tyrannical misgovernment be repeated. REPORT OF THE MEDICAL OFFICER OF HEALTH AND THE COLONIAL VETERINARY SURGEON FOR THE

In his report upon the health of the Colony for the year 1901, the Medical Officer of Health deals at length with many interesting topics. With regard to the area within the jurisdiction of the Sanitary Board he pointed out that the domestic buildings of the City of Victoria numbered 9.04% (exclusive of barracks and police stations) of which 172 were non-Chinese dwellings while there were also some 130 European dwellings in the Hill District. This showed an increase of 134 non-Chinese dwellings as compared with the previous year, and an increase of 312 Chinese dwellings. No less than 706 new houses were completed during the

He pointed out that the average monthly temberature was 72. 1° F. as compared with 71.6° F. during 1,000. The total rainfall was 45.78 inches as compared with 73.73 inches in 1,900 and an average of 77.2 inches during the past ten years. The relative humidity of the atmosphere throughout the year was 75 per centras compared with 77 per cent in the previous year. The average daily amount of mashine throughout the year was 5.5 hours, and on 25 days only was no sunshine recorded. GENERAL SANITARY CONDITIONS.

The Medical Officer of Health pointed not that an attempt had been made to check any farther increase in the excessive surface crowding of the City, but it yet remained for some measure to be introduced which should reduce the surface crowding to more reasonable limits. The question of the resumption of insanitary-or obstructive buildings had been left in abeyance pending the report of the experts, but it was essential that many of those buildings should be removed in order to open up, and admit light and air, to the many enclosed courts and alleys which abound in the City. There is still most urgent need, he said, for additional urinals throughbut the Colony, no new ones having been erected during 1901, while many more public latrines were also needed to supply the wants of the Chinese community.

POPULATION. Referring to the population of the Colony. Dr. Clark gave many interesting particulars which are dealt with in another column.

DISEASES. Having given statistics regarding regarding the birth and death rates of the Colony he proceeded to summarise the various diseases which had occurred during the past year, and mentioned that the total number of cases of infectious diseases reported was 1,847, of which no less than 1,651 were bubonic plague. There were 75 cases of enteric fever as compared with 85 during the previous year. A large increase. in the number of European cases was noticed, Mr. Ho. Tung remarked that he was just the total during the year being 47 as against 34 in 1900. Ninety-one cases of small-pox were reported, eleven of which occurred in European houses, one being with fatal results. Of cholera there were seventeen cases imported into the Colony from Singapore on board of the steamship Chung Chew. Six cases of diphtheria were notified, while there were no less than 377 deaths among the Chinese from beri-beri.

VETERINARY SURGEON'S REPORT. The report of the Acting Colonial veterinary Surgeon' showed that the quality of animals brought into the Colony for sale had been much above the average during the past year, and this, was probably due, in part, to the greater demand occasioned by the fact that Hongkong now supplies Manila markets. The total number of cattle admitted into the depôts at Kennedy Town during the year was 23,555 as compared with 20,801, while at the Hung Hom depôt the admissions were 5,688 as compared with 5, 348. The number of cattle rejected as unfit for slaughtering purposes at Kennedy Town was 574, while at Hung Hom 380 were rejected. At the Kennedy Town Depôts the number of sheep and goats admitted was 28,818, and the number of swine, 180,377 as compared with 157,765 during the previous year. Occasional cases of foot and mouth disease were brought into the Colony SHARES be registered before the latter Date. from the mainland where the disease appeared to be more or less endemic, but by proper isolation, a liberal use of disinfectants, and the frequent cleansing of the water tanks it had been possible to prevent any spreading of the disease. With regard to the dairies and cattle sheds of the Colony, the Acting Colonial Veterinany Surgeon pointed out that they had been regularly inspected and found to be kept in a clean and airy condition and in accordance with the Byc-laws, "A. Whyte, J. F. Wilcocks, A. Denn ANNUAL POLO DINNER Walsh, C. W. Wilson, Hon. B. M.

Upwards of twenty members sat down to the annual dinner in the Hongkong Club on Monday evening, 31st March, and Lieut, Col. F. W. B. Koe, A.S.C., Honorary Secretary was the guest of the evening. The Hon. T. H. Whitehead was Chairman while Major A. B. Hamilton, D.A.A.G., occupied the vice chair After loyally pledging the toast of "King Edward the Seventh" the Chairman said :- I beg to propose the health of our guest who is so soon to: leave for the old country. Col. Koe has been an indefatigable secretary, tactful but firm and he has rendered the Club yeoman service. He will be greatly missed by many others besides Polo players, also by "Jumbo" from whose back he did much hard hitting and scored many a goal. He has always played the game right through for his side, and not for his personal enjoyment. His example repeatedly set us should not be forgotten but should be emulated by every member. In the promotion of manly sports and health giving games our Honorary Secretary's energy and resource have been untiring and we will be fortunate if we look upon his like again. On behalf of the members, Col, Koe'l have the pleasure to ask your acceptance of this Silver Salver as a small token of our friendship and esteem. We wish you health, a long life of usefulness and a happy reunion with your wife and family in England. The toast was drunk with musical honours.

The following inscription appeared on the

Lieut.-Col. F. W. B. Koc. A.S.C., Honorary Secretary, from members of the Hongkong Polo Club with respect and esteem. 31st March, 1902.

Lieut. Col. Koc said :- I feel that I do not deserve the good things the Chairman has said or the splendid reception you have given me to-night. Still I greatly appreciate your kindness and I shall cherish this beautiful souvenir not only for its instrinsic value but for the feelings which prompted you to think of thus honouring me. I cannot find words to adequately express how grateful I am for the evidence of good-fellowship which this gathering indicates for I am conscious of my shortcomings and that I do not merit what you have done for me. . I am sorry to be leaving Hongkong for several reasons and because when at home I will not be able to afford to play polo as ponies there are so expensive. However I shall take away with me many pleasant recollections, none happier than my polo associations here, and I can only tender each of you my heartfelt thanks for your cordial reception and kindness to-night. (Cheers). Major A. B. Bamilton said :- Mr. Chalrman and Gentlemen the honour of proposing the Naval Players has fallen to my lot. We are much indebted to them for their assistance in keeping the proverbial polo ball rolling. In spite of the difficulties in picking up ponies at short notice and notwithstanding the undertainty as to their stay here, the Royal Navy are always well represented in all games, more especially polo. Amongst them are several of the Club's keenest players, and some of its most popular members. I cannot sit down without recalling to memory the grievous loss

which the senior service and the Club sustained in the sudden and untimely death at Canton

from Cholera, of a typical young sportsman and splendid horseman who was one of the best known figures in last winters polo, and whose cheery and hopeful disposition endeared him to all. I refer to the late Lieut.

Commander E. A. Baird of H.M's gunboat

Britomart, who was deservedly held in high esteem. Gentlemen I give you, with every assurance of your cordial approval the health of the Naval Players coupled, in the absence of Captain Orpen, with the name of Lieut. Hutchinson. (Prolonged cheering).

Lieut. H. Hutchinson, R. N. said :- Gentleman, through the unavoidable absence of Commander Orpen I am called on to respond to the toast so ably proposed by Major Hamilton and to thank him for the very. generous terms in which, he referred to the Naval polo players. I cannot find words to suitably express our gratitude for the sporting reception we have received on Causeway Buy, List of unclaimed Telegrams lying in the Assuredly the Naval man bas difficulties to contend against for he arrives here to-day and he does not know how soon he may have to be away again. Consequently the has to buy ponies without much of a trial and though he is invariably a good judge of horse flesh he has to take a good deal on trust. Were it not for this they would contribute more support than they have done, yet we now number 19 players, which is some evidence that naval men take to horse flesh as naturally as the duck takes to water. I thank you sincerely for the hearty way you have received and responded to the toast: (Applause) Mr. W. A. Cruickshank said :- Gentlemen though I feel conscious that I cannot do justice to the toast let me assure you it gives me great pleasure to propose the R. A. DRESSMAKING DEPARTMENT.

This section of our business is a new venture and has met with extraordinary success during the past 4 months.

All work cut and supervised by our dressmaker who, having had High Class Colonial and Home experience has attained the knowledge required to connect Style and Fashion with comfort in creating suitable toilets for Eastern wear.

We intend making this department a specialty and ladies will do well to give us a trial.

Our London and Parisienne buyers have Instructions to keep us up to date and supplied with all the latest and most Fashionable Goods so that our patrons may be assured of procuring everything of the newest and best.

Ball Dresses, Bridal Gowns, Afternoon Costumes. Mourning orders executed at shortest possible Notice.

Space will not allow us to quote the thousands of articles stocked in this establishment but two words will convey all that is necessary viz GENERAL STORE. Do not fail to enquire for ANYTHING you may want.
